

The Galapagos Islands and Ecuador

A Field Trip with the San Bernardino County Museum Association and Collette Vacations

Orientation Meeting

Thursday, August 21 or Thursday, October 30, 2008 • 6PM
for a 12-day trip in October, 2009

Start planning now for an unforgettable exploration of cultural and natural history in Ecuador and the Galapagos Islands! The Museum Association in conjunction with Collette Vacations invites you to spend 12 days starting October 17, 2009 visiting Otavalo, the Andes Mountains, Quito, a five-day cruise in the Galapagos Islands including Baltra, Bartholome, Isabela, Fernandina, Rabida, and Santa Cruz islands, and ending in Guayaquil, the "Pearl of the Pacific."

Travel with just 24 passengers and naturalist guides for a personalized, educational experience.

Join us at the museum on Thursday, August 21 or Thursday, October 30, 2008 for an informative, no-obligation orientation meeting and get ready for a vacation of a lifetime.

I want to learn more about the trip to Ecuador and the Galapagos Islands.
I will attend the free, no-obligation orientation meeting at the San Bernardino County Museum on ☐ Thursday, August 21 or ☐ Thursday, October 30, 2008
